Our commitment

Jamin O'Donovan is committed to making this website accessible to as many people as possible, including those with disabilities.

What we've done

This website has been designed with accessibility in mind. We have aimed to ensure: sufficient colour contrast between text and backgrounds; clear, plain language throughout; a logical page structure with appropriate headings; keyboard navigability; and that the site works on a range of devices and screen sizes.

Known limitations

This is a small, independently built website. While we have taken care to make it as accessible as possible, it has not yet undergone a formal accessibility audit. If you encounter any difficulties, please let us know.

Feedback and contact

If you experience any accessibility barriers on this site, or if you need information in a different format, please contact me at therapy@jaminodonovan.co.uk and I will do my best to help.

Enforcement

If you are not satisfied with my response, you can contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS) at equalityadvisoryservice.com.
